Certification Description

Improve your credibility and career.

This certification is designed to bolster your Excel skills and empower you to effectively and efficiently build resilient Excel spreadsheets. In this 34-hour series Excel expert David H. Ringstrom, CPA draws upon 30 years of spreadsheet experience to explore features, functions, and techniques that will level up your Excel skills.

You may know Excel, but do you know the quirks and nuances that are slowing down your day? Are your spreadsheets resilient? Or do small changes result in a cascade of formula maintenance? Are you working Excel? Or is Excel working you? This certification is designed to level up your Excel skills, and help you stave off fatigue that arises from spending too much of your day staring at spreadsheets.
