

Human Resources Management Certification

Certification Description

In this Certificate Program we discuss how Human Resource Management and the effective contribution of HR practices enhance organizational performance.

The modules provide an overview of core human resource knowledge and skills required for a professional HR manager in practice. This is followed by an examination of the development of a robust HR strategy and response, which, independent of geographic region, are required knowledge for professionals practicing HR management.

The program then explores how, through demonstrated knowledge, HR professionals can contribute to the delivery of the organizational strategy through a robust HR strategic response. This course examines a range of HR tools and techniques available to deliver sustained strong organizational performance.
